Parker

Would you like an organized crib but lack the labor, time & resources to get it done?

Does your current system lead to stockouts or having inventory sitting around waiting to be put away?

Could scanning your inventory speed up your current tedious procedures and help reduce your inventory replenishment methods?

If so, Value Managed Solutions Maybe for You!

100% Control

Keep your inventory levels where they need to be to support your business.

Organization

Have an organized crib with items in bins and customized barcoded labels.

Simple Software

Download the barcode scanning app, scanned data is automatically transmitted to Exotic into an order or a quote. Your bin levels automatically calculate replenishment.
